TRIPOLI/MEDIA CITY, Libya — Libya's parliament voted on Tuesday to back Haftar's east-based self-styled Libyan National Army (LNA) to carry out an offensive on the capital Tripoli, a move prompted by an escalating surge of violence in the second city. The vote, in which MPs voted for a ceasefire with no timeframe on who will come out on top, was boycotted by the United Nations-recognized Government of National Accord (GNA) as well as several political parties and opposition groups, which described it as a violation of their recognition by the U.N. General Assembly. Now comes the hard part of imposing a ceasefire, said a U.N. official. The world body will have to play a key role in negotiations to end the violence, which has led to the deaths of more than 1,000 civilians. "We need to look at the mechanisms how we will make sure it works, and of course, we have to be careful in implementing

New Media Man - 10/16/2007 - Documenting those wonderful and sados

This makes me absolutely endearing to my enemies. Also, does it count as a Foul if I was in the zone, in a trance of sorts
