I laughed so hard I almost spilled coffee on myself.New Page REMOVE I'm sure you've read the news of a new page and application form or "REMOVE" created by the City of Chicago. I'm not sure how to process it, but I suspect the City has a set process in place for how to re-populate these pages, for the good of the world. However, I also believe that the removal of the page or application is on the company and community to decide if it wants to remove it. The page is static, and informative, why would they remove it? I can not over emphasize the importance of this page. I checked the page daily for 6 months. Once I found it, I spent much time trying to figure out if there was some sort of system to access a list of web servers in the city. I was pleased to find this, and thrilled that the City is allowing the page to remain, but keep in mind that as the City grows, the page will become more and more obsolete. As I mentioned, I am at a loss as to what to do with this page once it has been removed. If anyone has any suggestions of what would be done with it, I would appreciate hearing them.package com.annimon.stream.streamtests 6d1f23a050
