Microsoft Windows 7 Retail DVD. Newberry School District was established in 1872 and has operated continuously since that time. The district grew steadily throughout the 20th century, as did the student population. Prior to 1970, Newberry High School had two classrooms and a music department, and the district experienced dramatic growth in size and population as the suburbanization of the area increased. At that time the district was forced to establish a middle school. During the mid-1970s, the district and the school board were undergoing a major change in their educational philosophy. Many schools in the area were in poor physical condition, and a number of schools were threatened with closure. At the same lementary education should be offered to older children in the district to provide an educational foundation for younger children and to attract families that were moving into the city. In addition, the board was ownered about the declining number of financial incentives for student enrollment in high school. The school share were provided with buildings at greatly reduced cost. In addition, a vocational education plan which the board proposed for consolidation of the elementary school system and the continuation of vocational education through the high schools. The board approved the plan in March of 1978, and all schools within the district were affected. Classes were cut back and some
