Don't be a dopey red zone on our new SpongeBob SquarePants: Lights, Camera, Pants! game. It's got all your favorite characters and characters from the show, plus a variety of 3D environments to explore. The original game was released last year, and this sequel comes with even more new content. Things to know before you play: 1. Right when you start the game, you'll hear a voice over to welcome you to the movie. In true SpongeBob fashion, this is followed by a voice over telling you to "have fun, you crazy kids!" 2. Some of the content isn't available just yet. Watch as Patrick and SpongeBob get into a "leak issue" with this object. In order to release a leak, you'll have to go back and clear out your puzzles by breaking them. 3. The game has a gym that will teach you skills like balance and jumping. Surprisingly, this game also came out before the first one, and features a different story. 4. You'll be able to take a quiz to unlock a new reward. 5. In an hour-long cutscene, you'll be able to travel back in time to experience events in the show's early history. 6. The game will ask you what type of new content you want to see in the game. Luckily, there are no decisions to make here since you'll have the option to choose what kind of franchise you want to play on from the start. This is a SpongeBob SquarePants: Lights, Camera, Pants! Game! Just like the first game, SpongeBob SquarePants: Lights, Camera, Pants! features full voice-over from the show's voice actors. The graphics are as cartoony as they come, and the different environments have a fun cartoon look. I've seen ads for download links to the original game, but there's no way to tell if this game is legitimately free or if it's scam. If you like the show, here's a free download for you. Hollywood actor Kurt Russell has been accused of rape, after it was revealed he had been pulled over for speeding in California. About. It was the summer of 1996, Russell was driving a Jeep Cherokee in Malibu with his son in the front seat when he was pulled over for speeding. Here he was arrested when a cop called his son out of the car to ask him why he was in the
