big fish games The most important feature of the BlueRay iRig HD is that the iRig is no longer tethered to a computer, but instead can be used as a wireless bluetooth studio monitor. As you'll see, there's also a couple of other new features to take advantage of, including a new built-in loop feature that allows you to easily create musical loops. Yes, it's the most important bit, and it's the reason this device is so cool. It's just as easy as any other bluetooth audio device to use, and you can even use it as a traditional headphone when you're not using it to monitor sound. Of course, if you're monitoring sound while using the iRig, it will still sync to your computer as usual, and a wired connection is still possible if you want to. I've used the iRig extensively, and it's been nothing but a pleasure to use. Check out our full review of the iRig below. New Features The new iRig HD's biggest new feature is the updated HD BlueTrack Studio Monitor, which makes it even easier to record and edit music in your iPad. In other words, if you've got an iPad, this will make it even easier to take advantage of all the features Apple offers with the Apple Music and iTunes apps. For me, that means an easier workflow when I'm recording or editing music, and I've noticed that when I use the iRig HD, it definitely feels much faster and less frustrating than before. It also allows me to focus on what I'm doing, instead of constantly checking my computer to make sure everything is working. Of course, there are some drawbacks to this new feature, so let's talk about them now. New Features on the iRig HD The biggest and most important new feature of the iRig HD is the upgraded HD BlueTrack Studio Monitor. If you have an iPad, this makes the iRig HD's connection to your computer so much easier. Instead of having to wire your iRig to your computer, you can simply use the iRig's built-in monitor to connect to your computer. And of course, you can also still connect to your computer if you want to, and you can even use your iPad as an audio interface. In the
