John Sandusky, the father of Andrew Sandusky, was stabbed to death in his home in the first block of Ursula Avenue in Conneaut Township, around 1:30 a.m. Friday. His son was found on top of the family's son's bedroom floor with 43 knife wounds, according to police. The 17-year-old boy turned himself in at the Butler County jail Friday afternoon. He faces a preliminary hearing Friday before Justice Beth L. Simandle. He is being held at the county jail pending transfer to the Pike County juvenile detention center in Mt. Pleasant, where he will be held in custody until he is scheduled to be arraigned in Pike County District Court Tuesday on charges of aggravated murder, kidnapping, burglary, robbery, endangering the welfare of a child, unlawful restraint, theft of a firearm and theft by unlawful taking or disposition. The first charges were filed Tuesday. Sandusky and his son, Andrew, were found on the floor with a blanket and pillow over their heads. A hand-drawn image of Jesus, which was discovered on the living room floor and spread on social media, was drawn on a shirt covering their faces. The Sanduskys had tried to protect themselves from a burglary, according to a police affidavit. Jail records showed the boy's bail was set at $20,000 cash. John and Marie Sandusky lived in Conneaut Township. Marie Sandusky was in the hospital Tuesday because of injuries sustained in a separate attack last month. "She has a very significant injury to her arm and will be there for a few days,◆
